ABOUT

Christina graduated with a Bachelor of Laws from the Multimedia University and was called to the Malaysian Bar on 13th June 2011.

Her repertoire boasts a diverse array of specialties, ranging from conventional to Islamic financing for both local and international banking institutions. With finesse, she handles contract financing for government and private sector ventures, adeptly manages the rescheduling and restructuring of financing facilities, and navigates complex developer project sale and purchase agreements with ease. Notably, Christina is sought after for her invaluable advisory services, catering to the needs of both banks and developers alike.

Drawing upon her extensive understanding of the Malaysian legal framework, particularly concerning commercial, residential, and industrial properties, Christina serves as a beacon of legal prowess in the realm of real estate. Her clientele, comprising a mix of local and foreign investors, buyers, property developers, and other stakeholders, trust in her expertise to guide them through intricate property transactions with precision.

Beyond her legal acumen, Christina's robust professional network within the property industry is a testament to her efficacy in advancing her clients' business objectives. With key connections in financial institutions and prominent property circles, she is well-equipped to deliver results that exceed expectations.

In essence, Christina's dedication to excellence and unwavering commitment to client satisfaction position her as a trusted advisor and indispensable asset in the dynamic landscape of property.
