ABOUT

Yao Ying graduated with a Bachelor of Laws from the University of Malaya and was called to the Malaysian Bar on 25th June 2012. She attends to Conveyancing and Banking matters under the supervision of Mr. Eric Leong.

Yao Ying's practice is particularly focused on conventional and Islamic financing and has been called upon by numerous financial institutions in relation to their conventional and Islamic financing documentation for use domestically and abroad. She also creates financial institutions' template documents in accordance with the various financing products and updates their template documents from time to time.

In addition to financing related matters, she also advises clients on a diverse range of matters including joint ventures, development agreements and real estate matters (developer sales, sub sale, tenancy and leasing).
